LISTENING COMPREHENSION I

PART I

Sound Discrimination Exercise

The objective of this exercise is to train the student to discern word boundaries and sound combinations at accelerated rates of speech.

You will hear five sentences in Russian, each read four times at progressively slower speeds, from accelerated to slower-than-normal. Transcribe as much of each sentence as you can after each reading. After the exercise, each sentence will be read twice again at an accelerated rate of speed at which time you are to listen and follow each sentence on screen.

PART II
Dictation

This exercise is to be done on a dictation sheet.
The objective of this exercise is to further develop the skill of transcription.

You will hear five sentences in Russian. They will be read, one after another without pauses. You should only listen during the first reading.

Next, each sentence will be read twice with pauses, during which you are to write them down in Russian on your dictation sheet.

PART III

Rapid Fire Drill

The objective of this exercise is to develop the skill of rapidly extracting information from spoken Russian.

You will hear five sentences in Russian. Each sentence will be followed by a pause during which you are to write down the meanings of the sentences in English. Use abbreviations and numerals wherever possible.

After the exercise, you are to check your English sentences with the answer key to be provided on screen.
